Wholesale Price List of Paeonys

C. S. HARRISON'S

SELECT NURSERY,

YORK, - :: - NEBR.

FALL OF 1903.

We do not sell clumps, but good strong roots, many of which will bloom the spring after planting.

We exercise the greatest care to keep everything true to name. We gladly correct any mistake, as soon as discovered.

Many of our plants, came direct from the originators, and we have 75 kinds of Kelway's best. We have also imported from Japan, Holland, and France. and have some of the finest in the world.

Every dealer knows of the shameful mixtures of different kinds, and of thousands sold at high price, not true to name. Over 6 kinds have been sold for Festiva Maxima, one of the grandest of all.

We have had no end of vexation, and unless direct from the originator, we seldom offer any thing unless we have tested it.

Terms Cash, or 30 days from delivery.
Don't send personal checks.

RUBRA TRIUMPHANS FLORAL TREASURE

THE PÆONY.

In the land of the North, where old Boreas reigns,
Binding rivers and fields in his terrible chains,
Where the brilliant Aurora, with fingers of light,
Is painting her splendors on garments of night:
Where the chill arms of winter our beauty enfolds,
And wrap up her form in a mantle of cold.

Floral treasure is chbrestka bern

She wakes from her slumbers and springs to the light,
And welcomes the warmth with her countenance bright.
How winsome her beauty. She floods all the air
With billows of fragrance, delicious and rare.

Away in the Southland, the land of the sun;

And out on the plains where the wild tempests run,
She blooms in her beauty, revealing her worth,
Then hides from the heat in the sheltering earth.
Where the fair Rhododendrons in radiance glow,
And their wonderful glory of loveliness show;
And Azalias are robed in their princely attire,
All aflame in their vestments of crimson and fire;
There her fragrance and graces our senses allure.
Full as lovely in form, and in beauty as pure,
By the side of the Rose in her robes of the morning,
And graces exquisite, her beauty adorning;
To whose fairy sweetness will ever belong
The legends of story, and tributes of song.
She need never hide in confusion and shame,
Or cringe at the thought of the magical name.
The pond lily flings all her sweets on the air,
And opens before us a countenance fair.
But the queen of our love is as dear to the eye
As the delicate blooms which on still waters lie.

In the great prairie empire so dreary and vast,

Where roses are slain by the terrible blast,

Where sirocco and blizzard in tournament vie,

And flowers of the Eastland grow homesick and die;

Where gardens are lonely and homes are forlorn,

There bravely our queen lifts her beautiful form,
And laughs at the tempest and smiles at the storm.
And mothers whose eyes have grown weary with waiting,
And girls whose sweet spirits for beauty are aching,
Shall smile on the march of our glorious flower,
And souls that are hungry her beauty devour.
No more shall the homestead be sad and forlorn,
An invasion of beauty the land shall adorn.
How sweetly her blossoms the senses beguile,
And the weary revive with the breath of her smile.
